

Leeds ACTS! (Academic Collaboration with the Third Sector) is a partnership programme which aims to drive collaboration between the third sector and higher education institutions in Leeds. They aim to bring together third sector leaders and academics to build working relationships and tackle priority issues within the city. Groups who applied for small grants were invited to present at The Community Vote event where the audience voted to allocate the seedcorn funding in a democratic process.

The Following groups were awarded grants:

- Basis Training and Education
- Health for All
- Mojo Films CIC
- Northcall
- Touchstone
- Voluntary Action Leeds
